What a Little Cinder Can Do

"While making my regular run betwee Atchison, Kansas, and this city on the 22d of tast June, a sharp drift of wind brought the smoke of the engine backwards and a sizzing hot cinder settled in my left eye. The usual benevolence of the passengers of the train was showered upon me and in a few minutes, a dozen thumbs, slik handkershiefs, tooth picks etc., were at work in the vais effort to revive me. The intense pain and burning set up an an inflammation an ulceration of the eye, so as to lay me entirely off duty in a dark room. I I consulted several physicians, but my suffering became worse until I despaired of ever again asing eye. In about about a week I was placed in the bands of Dr. W. C. Boteler, the eye specialist of this city, and from the first appli cation of his medicines my eye improved. I soon became able to visit the doctor daily and with each of my visits I obtained relief. Dr Boteler removed the small cinder in an instant he healed the ulcer, subdued the inflammation quieted my pain and, as you see, restored my sight. I had become nearly wild with suffering and am grateful for the recovery of my sight, which seemed almost impossible." Mr. Rails-

The Markets. CATTLE-Heavy runs continue to be had both a Kansas City and in Chicago, but under the influence of cooler weather and promise of good fail pastures there was more confidence in the future. Hence a healthy market was had in the face of the unusual receipts. The arrivals during the week were the heaviest of the season Chicago 52,300 and in St. Louis 9,000. These receipts are unprecedented and that the mar-ket should continue to improve in the face of them shows a marked growth in confidence in he future market. Good to choice native steers steadily improved during the week reaching Tuesday the best poless since lest April. Native shapping steem are now bringing full lest sum-mer's figures. Extra unave seems sold in Kan-sas City market the land a August at $4.40 to $4.00 averages of 1200 to 1400 he at $4 to $4.36; averages of 1110 to 1260 hs at $3,00 to $4. But while native native shipping steers jumped up materially grass steers and come only hardened little, a large per cent of the offerings being made of this class of estrie. That they did not decline under the great strain put upon the market is a most hoper times. There was a fair enquiry for stockers az it wires during the week but buyers were calles about bidding prices up. The high price of feed is going to make the wintering of camin expensive and farmers are insisting upon cheap cattle. There were a good many range cattle is during the week and many of them show evidences of drouth in their section, not having that flesh that they should at this time of the year. There were also some good eatile on sale. Closing quotations. Extra fine sie, rs, vv. 1500 and over $4.50 @ $4.50. Good, av. 1200 to 1450 $4.00 @

Hous-An unsuitled and irregular market was had the past week. Enring the early days of our review week, inder the influence of in creased receipts and the poor quality of hogs oming in, quite a decline was but : buyers in different and bearish. For the first time the condition of the hogs showed the effects of the drouth, there being more partly fed hogs on sale than for many mouths. And to this more than any thing else must be ascribed the unsatisfactory condition of the market. There was nothing in the general hog trade of the country to occasion this declare, if a decline in Chicago brought on by the same cause be accepted. Provisons kept fairly steady and the stocks are not large for this time of year. It as last until the whiter season with light packing and packers are conditiess n anavering to keep prices down as low as possible for the opening of the winter season. But that the hog crop-will be a short one is a tire-gone conclusion There is nothing train then that plenty of corneans plenty of hogs, and a light corn crop always accompanied with a light hog crep. A nereases now made up of roung and partly f hogs, mean corresponding loses in the supp ater on. While there was no life to trade, y everything was sold. Eastern shippers pu chased quite freely and there were sever parties in from Old Sexico after heavy her At Kansas City values drooped Saturday is per cwt. and in Chicago the market took unitar turn, but in St. Louis under light receipt stendy and firm market was had. But since Monday these declines have been regained and the market Tuesday was frin. The extreme range Tuesday was $4.00 to $5.20. nik of sales $3.05 to $5...0. The same date is-
